

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*NEARLY 2,000 PEOPLE ATTEND STIFEL'S INAUGURAL CROSS SECTOR INSIGHT CONFERENCEDates Unveiled for 2019 Event*

ST. LOUIS, June 21, 2018 – Following a hugely successful inaugural event, Stifel Financial Corp. (NYSE: SF) today announced plans to host another Cross Sector Insight Conference next year. The event will be held June 10-12, 2019 at the InterContinental Hotel in Boston.

Stifel's Cross Sector Insight Conference brings together market participants across a variety of sectors, including consumer, diversified industrials & services, energy & power, internet, media, real estate, and technology. Highlights from the 2018 event, held last week, include:

- Total attendance of nearly 2,000 individuals, including institutional investors, company executives, private equity backers, and venture capitalists, among others
- 345 participating companies (both public and private)
- 4,000 one-on-one meetings between investors and company management teams
- A series of thought-provoking panel discussions addressing timely topics, including cyber security, artificial intelligence, automation and robotics, the emerging cannabis industry, and changing consumer behaviors
- Keynotes from Former Federal Reserve Chair Dr. Janet L. Yellen, Ripple CEO Brad Garlinghouse, and Stifel Equity Strategist Barry Bannister

Conference attendees were also treated to a private concert by Grammy Award-winning singer and songwriter Darius Rucker. A crew from The Street.com, a leading online provider of business and financial news, was on hand conducting video interviews with notable attendees.

“We believe the Cross Sector Insight Conference delivers a highly differentiated experience for our clients,” noted Victor Nesi, Co-President of Stifel Financial Corp. and Head of Stifel's Institutional Group. “Attendees told us they appreciated the interactive, forward-looking agenda and the relevant conversations between investors, company executives, and thought leaders that cut across many industries. We look forward to seeing everyone in Boston again next year.”
