Lemonade Stand

Stifel Bank is partnering with the United Way of Greater St. Louis and Lion Forge Labs to help families build their financial skills and understand the importance of money management.

We encourage kids to work with their parents on basic financial principles like spending, saving, and sharing.

Connect with Stifel Bank or United Way of Greater St. Louis for more information.

What adventure can Budget Bunny and friends have today?

Penny exclaims, “We should start a lemonade stand!”

All of the friends agree with Penny.

“We need $10.00 to start. Where will we get the money?”

Penny asks.

"I can use my allowance to help with the stand," says Bud.
An allowance is money given or earned on a regular basis.
Bud offers $2.25 to help build the lemonade stand.

“I have money saved from my last birthday,” says Tito.
Saving means not using your money right away
and putting it aside for later.
Tito offers $5.00 to help build the lemonade stand.

"I can help by collecting cans and recycling them for money," says Dusty.
Dusty earns 75¢ to help build the lemonade stand.

"I will help with a chore to earn money," says Penny.
Earning is when you are given money for work or chores.
Penny earns $2.00 for helping with the dishes.

ACTIVITY

Did Budget Bunny and friends meet their $10.00 goal to start a lemonade stand? Add up the money for each friend on the line next to the money.

On the bottom line, add the total amount that each friend collected.

$ _____

TOTAL

Each friend has a role at the lemonade stand.
Dusty makes the lemonade. Tito stocks cups and sugar.
Bud collects money from customers.
Penny helps pour the lemonade.
By working together, the friends sell all of the lemonade!

ACTIVITY

Look at the pictures of the coins on the left and the amounts of money on the right.

Draw a line to match each coin with the correct amounts of money.

Dime

Penny

25¢

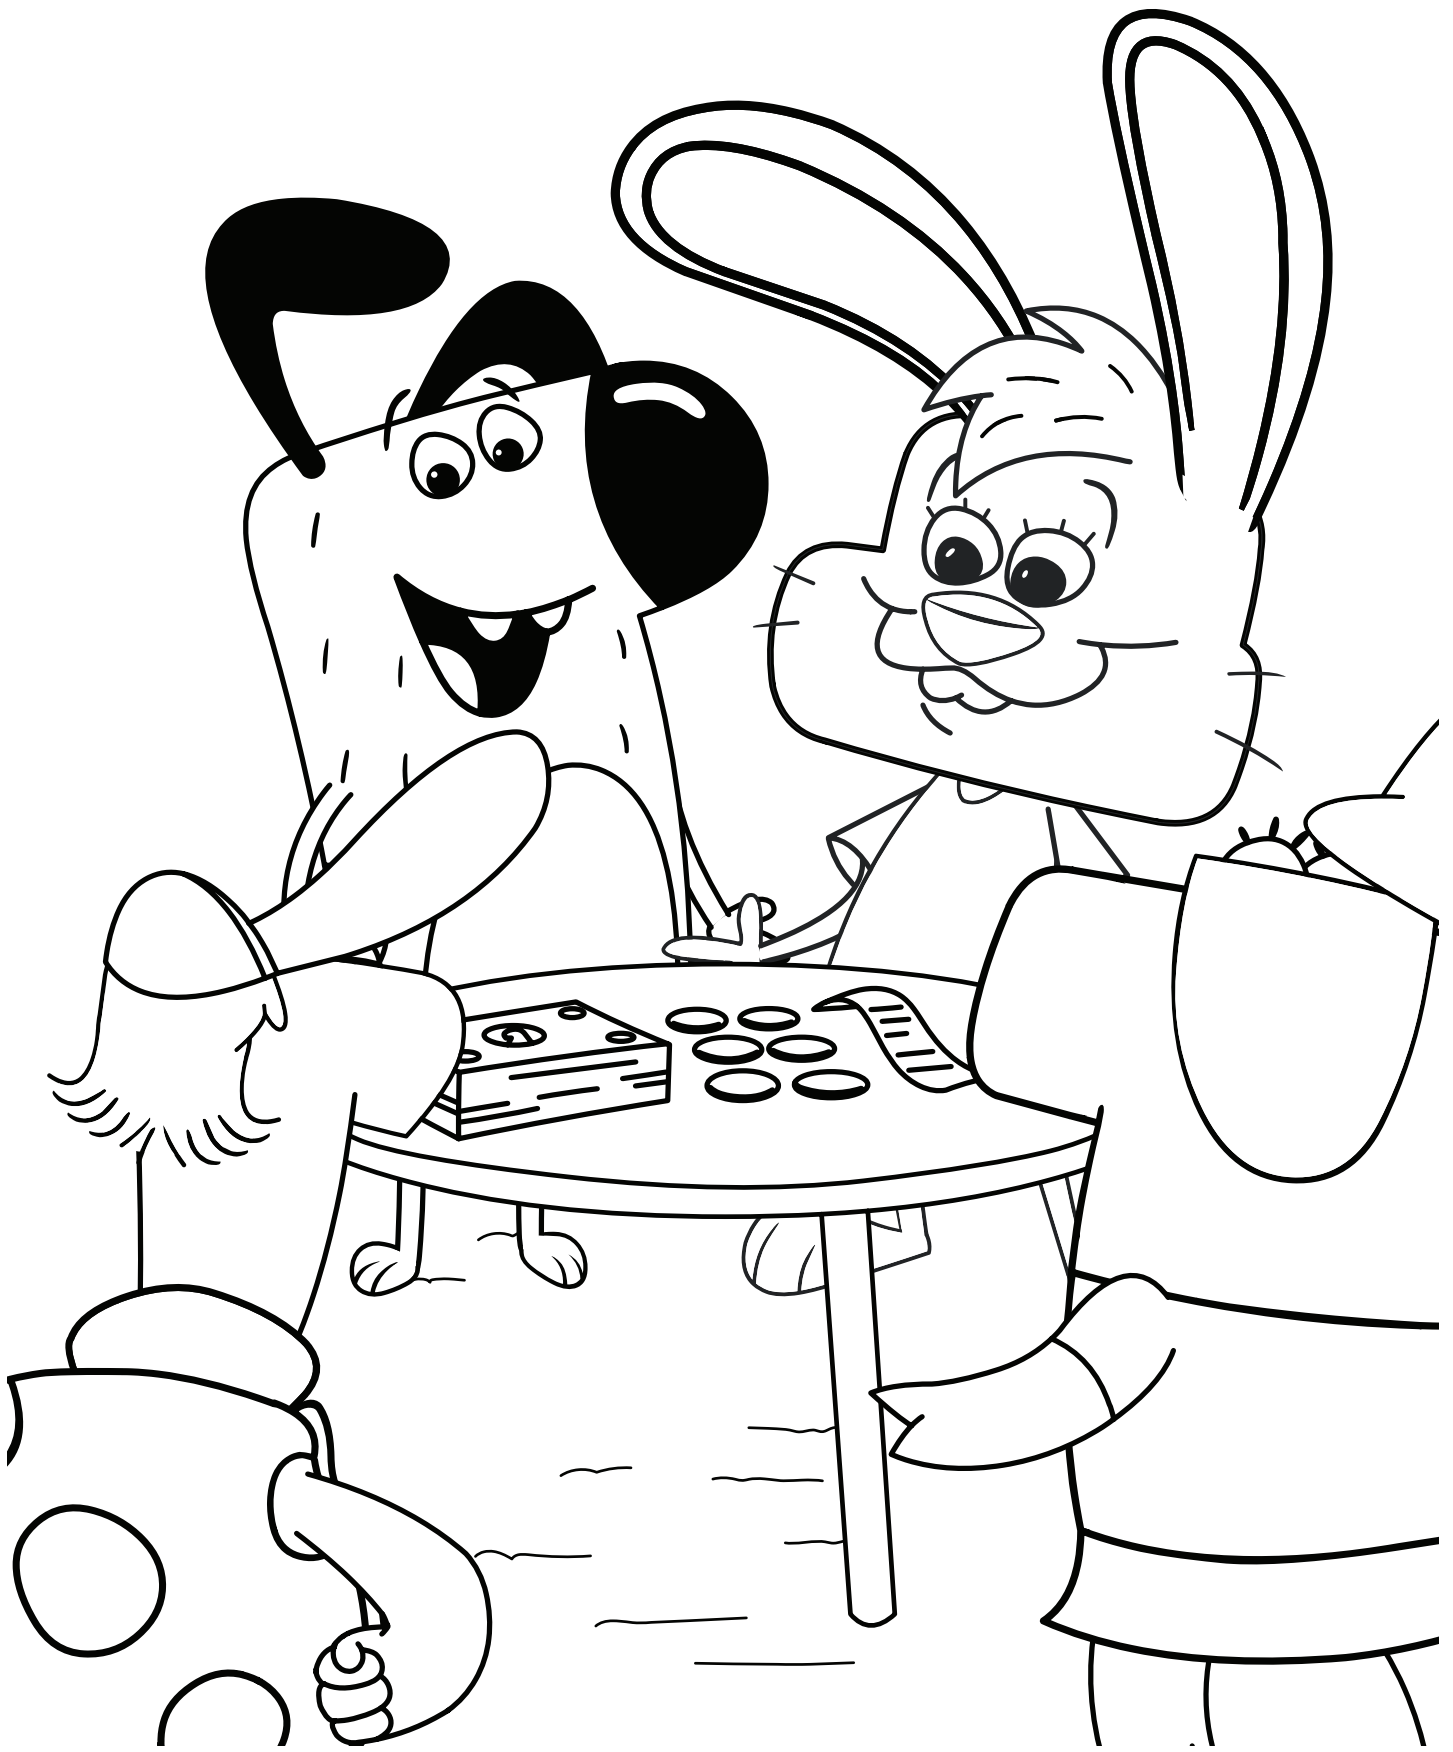

Nickel

10¢

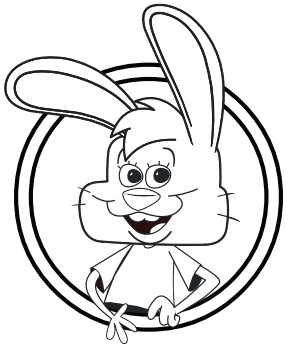

Quarter

5¢

“Wow, that is a lot of money,” says Dusty. “Where can we spend the money we earned?”

ACTIVITY

Bud and friends ran a successful lemonade stand.
Where can they spend the money they earned?
Follow the maze to explore St. Louis landmarks.

Tito exclaims,
“We should go to the Saint Louis Art Museum in Forest Park!”

Bud asks, "Maybe we can visit the Saint Louis Zoo?"

Dusty exclaims,
“I think we should count butterflies in the park!
How many do you see, Penny?”

Penny says,
“I want to see dinosaurs at the Saint Louis Science Center!”

Tito asks, "What if we take it all to the bank and put it in a savings account?"

"We should invest it all into our lemonade business," suggests Penny. Investing is putting money towards something for a positive return.

"I got it! Lets give it all to the local pet shelter," says Dusty. Sharing money is a way to help others or improve the community.

"We can do all of those! If we split the money up into jars, we can save some, spend some and share some.

Save, Spend and Share Jars can be a clever way to help manage a money plan," says Bud.

A savings jar can be used for putting money aside for later.

A spending jar can be used for money for items you need or want.

A share jar can be used to give money to help others or improve the community.
